Power | Connect | Sustain

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide employees with guidelines regarding the appropriate use of internet, email and computer systems on Company devices or employee-owned devices that relate to or involve TriCab employees, the workplace, or the Company.

Scope

This policy applies to all TriCab employees, temporary workers, and contractors.

General Principles

1. TriCab has provided employees with access to internet, email, and computer systems for business purposes. Employees can use these resources for personal use during their break times as long as they comply with this Policy, and it does not impact work output.
2. Usage data is stored on Company network servers and is subject to monitoring for security and for network management.
3. TriCab reserves the right to block an email or an internet website if the content of the email or the website is considered to be unacceptable, offensive, illegal, or defamatory.

All employees must ensure that they -

1. Limit their time spent on personal email and internet use to their allocated break times.
2. Do not use internet, email, or computer systems to send or receive information that contains illegal, obscene, pornographic, hateful content, which is offensive and inappropriate for the workplace.
3. Do not send or receive material that has illegal, obscene, pornographic, hateful, or defamatory content, which is intended to annoy, harass, discriminate, or intimidate another person.
4. Do not send, receive, print, or otherwise distribute Company data, trade secrets or other confidential information of the Company.
5. Do not download or stream applications, Movies, Music, Radio Stations, and YouTube unless authorised by Manager and IT team.
6. Upload, download or otherwise transmit commercial software, or any copyrighted material belonging to parties outside of the Company, or the Company itself.
7. Inform their Manager, IT team or HR immediately, if they receive an email or internet message which is in breach of the policy.
8. Understand that TriCab has the right to monitor, retrieve and access an employee's company email, internet usage and computer facilities without prior approval of the employee concerned on approval from the General Manager - TriCab Group.

Breaches

Any breach of the Internet Usage Policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.
